

5TH ANNUAL AMBROSETTI FORUM – VILLA D'ESTE, CERNOBBIO

GK Investment Holding Group Chairman Kamel Ghribi attended the 45th annual Ambrosetti Forum at the Villa d'Este in Cernobbio, Italy on the 7th and 8th of September.

This renowned Forum offers a platform for international decision-makers to express and outline their mission and vision. Drawn from the world of business, government, science&technology and security guest speakers tackle the major questions dominating our world in the field of geopolitics, economics, security and technology.

Numerous analyses, reports and strategic studies were presented during the Forum and Question and Answer sessions allowed participants the opportunity to put forward scenarios to the panel speakers to gain expert insight into the implications and impact certain global situations have on business, states and social structure.

Kamel Ghribi was proud to raise concerns that have long been of deep importance to him and was given high level assurances that stability and security in the Mediterranean and Middle East were of top priority to global powers.
